

RULES
OF THE
The DUNEDIN COUNCIL OF SOCIAL SERVICES Incorporated

1. NAME

- 1.1 The name of the Society shall be "The Dunedin Council of Social Services Incorporated" trading as "Dunedin Council of Social Services" herein-after referred to as the Council.

2. DESCRIPTION

- 2.1 The Council is a network of independent groups, organisations and individuals with a commitment to enhancing the wellbeing of their communities. These communities may be geographically based or communities of interest.

3. PRINCIPLE

- 3.1 A vibrant local community requires connection, facilitation, liaison and support to promote and enable inclusion of all members of not for profit, charitable social service organisations and individuals engaged in activities that directly benefit the greater Dunedin City community.

4. TREATY COMMITMENT

- 4.1 The Council is committed to giving effect to Te Tiriti o Waitangi/The Treaty of Waitangi.

5. OBJECTIVES

- 5.1 To keep the local community informed of events and activities by collecting, collating and disseminating information about charitable organisations, community activities, or community training opportunities occurring within the greater Dunedin City area.
- 5.2 To promote and encourage participation by members of the local community in charitable or statutory community organisations, community activities and community training events.
- 5.3 To facilitate cohesion and collaboration between local not for profits, charitable and statutory bodies through providing forums for the exchange and development of ideas to benefit the community of the greater Dunedin City area.
- 5.4 To support local community agencies involved in not for profit or charitable activities through the provision of training opportunities, advice and support for volunteers, staff and governing bodies.
- 5.5 To promote and support constructive participation and dialogue on behalf of the not for profit, charitable community sector in decision-making processes affecting the greater Dunedin City area.

6. MEMBERSHIP

- 6.1 The Board of the Council may receive applications for membership which it shall accept or decline within three months of the date of receipt of the application.
- 6.2 The Board in considering the application shall satisfy itself that the applicant's rules and objects are consistent with those of the Council.
- 6.3 The applicant will be given an opportunity to appear before the Board and make submissions in support of its application. The Board will consider and then advise the applicant in writing of the Board's decision.
- 6.4 An organisation shall cease to be a member of the Council if:
- i) Upon the recommendation of the Board, a two thirds majority of the voting members present at a general meeting of the Council can decide that a membership should cease. The member concerned will then receive written notice of the expulsion.
 - ii) It ceases operation.
 - iii) They tender a resignation in writing.
- 6.5 At any General Meeting of the Council any person who has made an outstanding contribution to the work of the Council or to the social wellbeing of Dunedin may be elected to honorary life membership. Honorary life members receive the same benefits as full members but are not eligible to stand for office or vote at a General Meeting.
- i) Only financial members can nominate a person for life membership. Such nomination must be in writing to the Secretary no less than 42 days prior to the General Meeting and must include a description of the contribution the nominated person has made.
 - ii) The Board shall consider each nominee and not less than 30 clear days before the date of the next General Meeting, notify each member of those nominees it approves for consideration by the Annual General Meeting.
 - iii) The Board itself may nominate any such person as aforesaid for honorary life membership and in such case shall notify each member of such nomination in accordance with ii) above.
 - iv) No person shall be deemed to be elected to honorary life membership unless the resolution in favour of his or her election is passed by at least two thirds of the total number of votes entitled to be exercised.
- 6.6 The Secretary shall maintain at the registered office of the Council a register of members which shall consist of the full name and contact details of every member.

7. BOARD

- 7.1 The Council shall be governed by the Board which shall, subject to these Rules and any amendments thereto, or any direction given it by the Council at any general meeting, be free to determine its own management and procedures.

- 7.2 The Board shall comprise of no less than 5 and not more than eight elected members and up to two members co-opted to provide specific skills or representation. There will also be a representative from the Dunedin City Council appointed to the board by the Mayor. The DCC representative will also have voting rights
- 7.3 Board members will retire after a two-year term, but will be eligible for re-election at the same and subsequent Annual General Meetings. Newly elected Board members will take office immediately upon their election.
- 7.4 Only Council members may nominate candidates, in writing, to be received by the Secretary no less than seven clear days in advance of the Annual General Meeting. The nomination shall contain the full name and address of the nominee which shall be signed by the proposer, and consented to in writing by the nominee.
- 7.5 Four members of the Board shall constitute a quorum. Should any member of the Board be absent without leave from three consecutive meetings, they shall forfeit and vacate their office and the Board may appoint a person to fill the vacancy until the next annual meeting.
- 7.6 The Board will strive to seek consensus. In the event that a consensus cannot be reached then a decision will be made by a majority vote by show of hands.
- i) If the voting is tied, the Chairperson will have a second and casting vote.
- ii) The Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson or the Chairperson's nominee will chair each meeting.
- 7.7 At the first meeting of the Board following an Annual General Meeting the Board shall appoint its own chairperson, deputy chairperson, secretary and treasurer.
- 7.8 The Annual General Meeting shall appoint an honorary solicitor and an independent, qualified registered accountant. The Accountant is to oversee and report on the financials with a profit and loss report. Both Solicitor and Accountant, subject to their consent, shall hold office until the next Annual General Meeting.
